Arka Jain University ,School of Commerce and Management organised ‘’SAMVAAD’’-A parent teacher virtual meet as on 23rd May ,24th May and 25 th May for IInd ,IVth and VIth semester students respectively.

It was basically conducted to improve the interactions between stakeholders and to inform them about the activities carried out during lockdown .

A good interactive sessions between the parents and teachers was initiated by the B.com ,head of Department Miss Priya Raman ,in coordination with all the faculties of the Department. Through the virtual mode of Google meet.

The session had a positive outcome ,Parents were satisfied with the virtual mode of online education .The generalised approach of the parents was positive except for the certain difficulties addressed by them with regards to the network issues faced by their ward.

Hence,the session gave a good platform to the parents where they shared their own perspective ,thoughts and also valuable suggestions which could have been taken care of by the Institutions at the time of Covid-19 pandemic with regards to the virtual class.
