The creative arts engage student's minds, bodies, and senses. The arts invite children to listen, observe, discuss, move, solve problems, and imagine using multiple modes of thought and self-expression. The creative arts provide ways for young students to learn and use skills in other domains. In the domain of Creative Arts Expression, programs need to ensure that children who are dual language learners can demonstrate their abilities, skills, and knowledge in any language, including their home language. The theme of this even was "Dipawali, AtmaNirbhar Bharat and COVID-19". Students have to make posters or write slogan on any given topic.
