World Sight Day Celebration

World Sight Day was celebrated on 21st of October, 2021; Thursday in the University premises, by the department of Optometry, School of Health and Allied Science. World Sight Day was first acknowledged by International Agency for the Prevention of Blindness (IAPB), with the message of Love your Eyes for this year. The program started off with lighting of lamp by the respected dignitaries and guest of honour from Purnima Netralaya, Jamshedpur with whom the department worked in a free cataract screening camp in the nearby village of Mohanpur, post lunch. A documentary was shown to the audience which was heart-warming and it showed the implications of vision impairment. A skit "Aashayein- Ummeed ki ek kiran" was enacted by the students with Mrs Sucheta Mitra as the narrator and Ms Shreya Chakraborty behind the script. A poster competition was held where three groups participated from 2nd and 3rd years.

The session was executed smoothly under Mr Sarbojeet Goswami's supervision. The program was attended by honourable Vice Chancellor, respected Registrar, Dean of School of health and allied science, Dean of School of Law, Dean of Engg and IT and Program coordinators and faculty from various department.

The session was wrapped up by Mr Sarbojeet Goswami, after which along with the representatives of Purnima Netralaya, the faculty of Optometry department and a few student volunteers, the screening was implemented, where patients were screened for cataract and referred to Purnima Netralaya for further surgical intervention.
